CHEAPER MONEY, BETTER
BUSINESS.
OUR SOLID DOLLAR.
EDISON'S BELIEFS, HIS BUSINESS.

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

When money becomes cheap, strange to say, business seems to improve.

France officially cut the value of the franc down 80 per cent. That was as though this country had reduced the value of a dollar to 20 cents.

France then proceeded to pay her debts with money worth one fifth the amount borrowed. Englishmen, to their sorrow, had to take for loans that they had made to France in war time, money worth one fifth of the amount they had paid.

Frenchmen that had bought their country's bonds were paid in money of the same kind, getting back 20 cents on the dollar, which is as though our government bonds should suddenly drop eighty dollars on a hundred.

Did this ruin France? Not exactly.

Since the franc was knocked down, the French have accumulated two thousand four hundred million dollars of gold metal. France has prospered enormously, with absolutely no unemployment, until very recently, and much less now than any country in Europe.

Since Britain abandoned the gold standard, the pound dropping about one dollar in value on the world's exchange markets, business has improved in Great Britain.

London punch prints a picture of John Bull looking at the black smoke coming from chimneys of factories suddenly active saying:

"A pleasant smoky sky once more."

British cotton mills are reopening in Lancashire, and many hundreds have left the dole to go on a pay roll.

Finance is a queer, complicated thing. You cut 80 per cent from your currency's value and gather in the second biggest pile of gold in the world.

Or you keep money at par, a hundred cents worth of currency meaning 100 cents worth of gold metal, as we do in America, and you accumulate the world's biggest pile of gold.

It may please you to learn that the "attack on the dollar" is a failure thus far in Europe.

Our dear friends over there would like to knock down the dollar's value. A cheap dollar would make it easier for them to buy our goods, or to pay their war debt, if they could suddenly get "an honor complex." And decide to pay us what they owe.

However, this is a creditor nation. It has the goods, the industries, the raw materials, the engineering talent, and its dollar is very solid.

It would be impregnable if we only had courage.

Many people are taking unnecessary interest in the religious beliefs and unbeliefs of Thomas A.
Edison. It is known that he contributed something to a society of free thinkers and to a monument memory of Tom Paine. Meddlesome bushies would admit that Thomas A. Edison had a right under our government and constitution to think and believe or not believe whatever he chose.

Incandescent Light 52
Years Old On Inven-
tor's Funeral Day

(By Associated Press)

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 21.— This is the fifty-second anniversary of the incandescent light—and the funeral day of the man who invented it.

With the first wisps of dawn today, the body of Thomas Edison was moved from the vine-wreathed laboratory where in life so many masterpieces of his genius were created.

Taken To Glenmont

The bronze casket was taken, under escort, to Glenmont, the Edison home, for private funeral services at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.
Only the closest friends were invited to join the family, yet the list of mourners numbered more than four hundred.

The burial at Rosedale cemetery, was, like the service at the home, arranged to avoid ostentation or pomp.

President Hoover, pressed with affairs of state, was unable to attend the funeral of his friend. Mrs.
Hoover, however, travelled from the capital for the services.

Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone, the two survivors of a famous triumvirate, arrived late yesterday.

25,000 View Body

Twenty-five thousand persons passed by the bronze casket in the half-light of the laboratory yesterday. Other thousands had preceded them Monday. Mr. Firestone, who came with Mr. Ford to say a last "goodby" to their friend and comrade, was among those who stood for a misty-eyed moment before the bier.

Mr. Ford did not enter the room in which the body of the inventor lay. He wanted no sight of death, he said, to cloud the memory of his last sight of his friend.

Rev. Dr. Stephen J. Herden, a former Methodist minister and a friend of Mr. Edison, planned only an informal funeral service at the home.

Greenford Grange
Hears Home Agent

Miss Booth, of Canfield, Mahoning county home demonstration agent, gave a talk on "Feeding the Family" at a meeting of Greenford grange Tuesday evening.

A debate on "Resolved, that husbands should eat all the new dishes which their wives prepare for them?" added interest. Mary Beardsley and Mrs. Jerry Slagle took the affirmative side, while Arnold Prentner and D. R. Mc-Connell discussed the negative side.

The roll call response was "The Most Interesting Place You Have Visited This Summer."

JOB NEXT MONTH

Council Takes Final Action On S. Broadway Improvement

PROPOSAL TO PAVE
PENN. AVE., LOSES

Will Repair Columbia-Euclid Stretch of Broadway Next Spring

Final legislative action on the proposed resurfacing of South Broadway between East State and Columbia sts., estimated at total cost of $9,755.66, was approved by members of city council Tuesday night.

Will Ask For Bids

The next step toward improvement of the street will be taken by Service Director Clyde R. Reich who was authorized by council to receive bids on the project from contractors. Work is to start early next month under council's plans.

The street will be resurfaced with sheet asphalt. The cost to property owners is estimated at $3,842.17 and the expense against the city figured at $5,913.49.

Council approved the ordinance under suspension of rules, planning to rush the project through as quickly as possible. It will be the final street improvement project to be undertaken by the municipality this year.

Penn. Ave. Plan Loses

Plans for the paving of Penn ave., between East State and Columbia sts., were abandoned by council because of an insufficient number of signatures affixed to petitions requesting the improvement. Where a total of 60 per cent of property owners is required for such a project only 50 per cent signed the petitions, City Solicitor Cecil K.
Scott explained.

Another street improvement project, the proposed resurfacing of South Broadway from Columbia to Euclid, has been deferred until next spring.

An ordinance providing for the issuance of approximately $4,000 in notes in anticipation of collection of special assessments against property owners on the South Broadway improvement was approved by solons.

Action on an ordinance proposing establishment of a municipal poor relief fund of $10,000 will probably be taken at city council's meeting Thursday, November 5, after the city has complied with requirements set forth by the Ohio tax commission.

ingston, East Palestine, Salsville, Wellsville, Youngstown and Lisbon.

trict president.

posed of Salem women, includes

Polling places for voters in the City of Salem and Perry township at the Nov. 3 election were announced by city council Tuesday night.

Two changes in precinct polls were listed. Precinct C of the Fourth ward, formerly located at Mellinger's battery station, Vine ave., was changed to the Glass and Hayden grocery store, East State st and Hawley ave.

The other change affected township voters. Where Perry electors formerly cast ballots at two polling places North and South precinct, this year they will vote at only one precinct, the polling place of which will be located in the office of the township trustees, South Broadway.

The polling places were fixed in surveys conducted by ward councilmembers. There will be 13 municipal polling places and one for township electors.

Gangster Girl is Society Deb

Faith Baldwin's new serial proves high and low society girls can swap places with ease; plane crash brings chance

There's a good deal of truth in the old saw about "Judith O'Grady and the Colonel's Lady" being "sisters under the skin." Faith Baldwin's latest dramatic serial plunges a gangster girl into the lives of a family of culture and wealth—and she holds her own with the best of them!

Fanchon Meredith, fleeing her past among the gangsters of a big city, strikes up acquaintance with a lovely debutante occupying the seat across from Fanchon in a big trans-continental plane. The plane meets disasters—and Fanchon finds she is the sole survivor.

Fanchon sees her big chance and boldly takes it. She assumes the name and clothes of her dead friend and goes on to enact the rest of the role. The "aunt" who has never seen her before, the cousin who had always disliked the girl, Fanchon is impersonating, are two whom the gangster girl must fool.

She succeeds—and for a while it looks as if her wildest dreams of happiness are going to materialize.

Then the old life overtakes her, with a whirling suddenness which takes her breath. She is caught—a faker, an impostor.

BLOND SOUGHT
IN MYSTERIOUS
TRUNK MURDERS

Minnie Ruth Judd, 26, Doctor's Wife Hunted
By Authorities

POLICE UNABLE TO DISCOVER MOTIVE

Husband, Brother Released After Thorough Questioning

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—Winnie Ruth Judd, 26, slender blond wife of a physician, remained at large today despite the efforts of thousands of officers seeking her as the perpetrator of the Phoenix trunk murders.

The motive behind the slayings still was almost as much of a mystery as it was Monday night, when the bodies of the victims, Mrs. Agnes Lerol, 32, and Miss Hedvig Samuelson, 24, were taken from trunks which Mrs. Judd had shipped here from Phoenix.

"It must be a case of deranged mind—that's as much as we can say at present," said Detective Inspector D. A. Davidson.

Search today was being concentrated in the vicinity of Laguna Beach, artists' colony, 60 miles south of here, following the arrest of a woman hitch hiker near San Bernardino whose description corresponded somewhat with that of Mrs. Judd.

Expect To Find Suicide

"Hardly expect to find Mrs. Judd alive," declared Inspector Davidson. "It is my opinion she will be found a suicide."

Officers again subjected her husband, Dr. W. C. Judd, and her brother, Burton J. McKinnell, to a thorough questioning. Both men had been held as material witnesses, but were released from custody last night.

In the meantime word was advanced by the coroner for the disposition of the bodies of the victims.

The bodies were found in two trunks and a suitcase at the Southern Pacific railroad station. The body of Miss Samuelson had been disemboweled, portions of it being found in one of the trunks and in the suitcase.

Lloyd J. Andrews, county attorney for Maricopa county, Arizona, arrived last night by plane from Phoenix.

Consider Theories

"We have considered the woman's probable jealousy of her husband aroused by Mrs. Lerol or Miss Samuelson or both; jealousy between the women themselves over one of the trio, and the so-called narcotic and liquor angles, but they are all insufficient to prove a motive," said Andrews.

"The principal thing in the case now, as I see it, is that Mrs. Judd is missing, and a motive for the crime lacking."

Rev. H. J. McKinnell, retired minister from his home in Darlington, Ind., expressed confidence in the innocence of his daughter.

"I am worried, of course, but I know that my daughter could not be involved in such an affair," he said.

Trusty Goes to Grid Game But Denies Meeting Wife

Investigation Launched by Warden Thomas at Ohio Penitentiary

(By United Press)

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21.—R. E.
Scott, former Portsmouth broker serving a term at Ohio penitentiary on conviction of embezzlement, today admitted he attended the Vanderbilt-Ohio State football game, but denied that his wife accompanied him. Scott was questioned when complaints were received from Portsmouth that alleged unusual liberties were accorded him.

The former broker is a trusty and works at the Ohio archaeological museum near the Ohio State campus.

Warden Thomas of the penitentiary asserted it was a custom to allow a score or so of trusties who work at the university to go to two or three football games each year.

Scott declared there were about 20 trusties with him at the game and any of them could attest that he did not see his wife, as he was repeated to have done.

Warden Thomas said Scott's wife visited him at the prison last Sunday in the prescribed manner but the prisoner denied that she visited him at the museum several weeks ago to deliver him some clothes.

The warden said if investigation revealed the trusty had overstepped privileges, he would be returned within the walls.

killed the entire bloom. This is the first time a fruit tree on the Mason farm has been in full bloom in October.

REMOTE CONTROL

It's a long way from Geneva, Switzerland to Tokyo, Japan, and a long way, too, from Tokyo to the many points of Sino-Japanese irritation in Manchuria. It is little wonder that the Japanese, trying to control their affairs from Tokyo, are in difficulty.In Geneva is a representative waiting for instructions from his Tokyo foreign office. In Washington is an ambassador with the responsibility of creating goodwill for his country, even though the trend of affairs at Geneva has been running contrary to his purpose. In Manchuria, where Japanese occupation, it should be remembered, is taken for granted as fully as American occupation of Cuba once was taken for granted, are thousands of officers and soldiers frequently waiting for no instructions at all, but handling situations as they arise. The result is the apparent inconsistency of actual aggressive warfare against the Chinese in Manchuria, a hostile attitude towards the League of Nations and the United States in the Japanese population, a friendly official attitude at Washington and Geneva talk of peace and acts of war.It is easy to condemn what is actually happening for its variance with ideals of what should happen.
It is easy to say that because the League of Nations seems unable to clear up the Manchurian situation, the league is discredited. In short, it is easier to swing a hammer than to throw a bomb in international relations as in everything else. The quickest way to get reasoning right is to inquire what probably would have happened had there been a world wide peace sentiment—no Paris peace pact, no League of Nations.Japan could have strengthened its hold on Manchuria without interference. China's willful resistance of Japan's treaty rights in Manchuria would not have been disclosed to the world. The international apple cart would have been sent rolling down a hill studded with dynamite.The apple cart is in danger, of course, even now. It is only the questionable benefit of organized opinion to keep it from going to pieces. But it hasn't been proved yet that organized opinion won't turn the trick. At least, it is the only force there is. If it won't work, nothing will.

What Others Say

VICTORIA KENT

Victoria Kent is a citizen of Spain. The new republic has given her one of the most important posts.
It is said, ever held anywhere in the world by a woman. She takes charge of Spain's entire prison system—forty-nine state prisons, six national and 115 smaller ones.Senator Kent expects to make expenses fall within the budget allotment for prisons, and to see to it that prison inmates "get a square deal."It is said of this woman that she is "one of the most remarkable women in the world." She is a lawyer, and a good one. And yet she is said to be "all woman." Her first important public task was the defense of accused Republican leaders. It is said of her, "she has reached the top in a man's country, and no American woman, even though she has been in Turkey, can appreciate what that means until she has been in Spain."Being a woman, it is not strange that she has at once sought to relieve the terrible experiences of imprisoned people, whom she found "caged like wild animals" and treated as such. She has produced a in a remarkably short period of time.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NEW YORK
Day by Day
by O.O. McIntyreNEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A pronounced New York neighborliness gambles at theatrical first nights.
Because they attract almost the same crowd night after night, there is about them the familiarity of the yap town drug store after the evening meal.Fifty per cent of the audience is composed of critics, producers' and friends, ticket brokers and others directly concerned with Rialto affairs. It is rarely an audience fev-ored to high expectations. Even producers and angels become blase. To the majority it is just another play.The representative audiences are seen at offerings by Arthur Hopkins, Messmore Kendall, Earl Carroll, Brock Pemberton, George White, and, of course Flo Ziegfeld.
Belasco in his day also drew the craze de la creme. George M. Cohan brings out the largest "personal following."Despite managerial precautions and public warnings I have never attended but one opening where the curtain went up on scheduled time.
They are invariably from 10 to 30 minutes late. This is largely because everybody knows everybody and refuses to be seated.Critics, because those on morning papers must depart early, are always on aisle seats. As a rule sensioned chroniclers are given preference in near stage locations. Those attached to weekly publications are generally in about the middle of the house.Here and there, leavened in among the gathering, are the columnists—F. P. A., Russel Crouse, Louis Sobel, Mark Hellinger and Louis Kitchen. In one of the first three rows will be Percy Hammond sitting in half-lidded indifference.
Nearby the Gibson man comes to life—John Anderson.Kelsey Allen may be spotted by the pocket flash torch he carries to study programme in dark moments. Among the most persistent first nighters are Sailing Baruch, Al Bedel, Leo Newman, Otto Kahn, Will Hays and wife, Conde Nast, Irving Berlin and William Leeds.Broadway's titling fame is frequently emphasized at premieres.
They attract many who once shim-mered in the dazle and passed from the picture. The other evening I saw a director whose string of successes made his profession merely a problem in selection ten years ago. Yet few recognized him crouched in a far back seat. He looked seedy, a bit dissolute and altogether beaten.

Just before curtain time at every opening there is a knot waiting at the edge of the box office window.

They know a Rialto trick. Seldom is there an opening without at least a half a dozen tickets turned in at the last moment. They cannot be returned to agencies and must be sold quickly at box office or not at all. Often such seats are in the first few rows and the lucky purchase them at the stamped price.A diversion of a first night, too, are these imph and white emmed ladies determined to be seen as well as heard. They yoo-hoo and hand wave across the aisle after coming in late, usually in a cocktail glow.
In these stern hidebound days when theater tickets are a drain on the purse, audiences are not so tolerant.
Several times recently such disturbances have received a volley of hisses.They were discussing inspired editorial hunches. One standing out was that of Mitchell Kennerly. The Forum Magazine was on way to press when the great war rocked the world. Kennerly ripped out the leading article and substituted the Sermon on the Mount in large type.
But the best, I think, was Jim Keeley's trigger turn on a Chicago pulp. The morning after the Iron quais fire the entire front page was given over solely to a grim and alphabetical list of the dead.Overheard near the Palace: "He's a bang-up comedian but always talks smack into his laughs."From a news item: "She was so angry she threatened not only to snatch baldheaded those who came near her but to rip them to ravelings."

That's my idea of a hunk of mad.

The Stars Say

For Thursday, Oct. 22

While this promises to be a lively and eventful day in business relations, according to the stellar operations, yet there may be some anxieties threatening litigation (which should be shunned). Also employment may give concern. But there is prospect of some change proving a stabilizing force and new contracts may fulfill an ambition.
Domestic, social and affectional relations will be to the fore, offering much activity and personal pleasure.Those whose birthday it is may look for a very lively and interesting year, with domestic, social and romantic activities engaging paramount attention. In employment there may be slight anxiety and business may involve litigation which would not be favorably decided. Change seems imminent, with a stabilizing influence on industry, labor and accumulated possessions of real value. A child born on this day while leaning to domestic, social or romantic activities, may yet be practical, original, inventive and successful in affairs of its own direction.

Facts About a Skin Rash

Recently a reader asked for information concerning a disease called "psoriasis." Probably many of you never even heard the name.Never to have heard of psoriasis is good luck, because it is a disagreeable disease. It is one of the most distressing and annoying of the skin troubles. It is a chronic inflammation of the skin. The skin is covered with reddish dry, rounded patches.The disease may occur at any age, but is common in early adult life. At first it begins as a small, reddish, pinpoint pimple. The pimple increases in size and soon reaches the size of a dime or even a silver dollar.
These patches are dry and round, distinctly defined, somewhat elevated, and are covered by shiny, silvery scales.

Easily Recognized

As a rule, this skin defect is found on the back surface of the elbows and knees and on the scalp.
The chest and other parts of the body may become involved.As a rule, there is no discomfort, although there may be a slight itching. The patient has no other symptom than the disfiguring appearance of the skin.My reader asked me whether I thought improper diet caused this condition. This is a difficult question to answer. It may have its effect but as yet the definite cause of psoriasis has not been discovered.It is believed to be caused by a parasite or germ of some sort. The disease occurs just as frequently in robust individuals, as in those who are weak and debilitated. The diet is thought to play some part, but it is not the actual cause.Psoriasis is easily recognized, although it is sometimes confused with eczema. It differs from eczema because, instead of involving the front portions of the arms and legs, as eczema does, it is found on theback part. In psoriasis, there is slight itching, while in eczema there is marked itching. The skin eruption in eczema is usually covered with yellowish scales and is moist in appearance, while in psori-asis the patches are silvery-colored and always dry.

Diet and X-ray Aid

Your doctor may place you upon a special diet. This will be followed according to directions.The local treatment begins with the removal of the scales with ordinary soap and water. The local remedies consist of specially prepared ointments. The ointment should be applied once or twice daily under the supervision of the physician.Fortunately, in most instances the disease runs a definite course and then begins to disappear. There are, however, many cases which are indeed, stubborn in resisting treatment and run a longer course.
Beneficial effects are sometimes obtained by exposure of the skin to one or two treatments with the X-ray.

BEWARE THE
COUGH OR COLD
THAT HANGS ONPersistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

PLAYING WITH FIRE BY WILLIAM McLEOD RAINE

INSTALLMENT XXXI. MEGARE'S SAYS ADIOS.

Megares must have known what a short shift was before him, but he was as gracefully graceful, as impudently selfish as ever he had been when he held all the high cards.

Hadley felt an odd unreasonable wave of admiration for the man. He was a villain beyond doubt. But he had the great redeeming virtue of courage.

"So you are the murderer Megares. Very well. You will be tried at once," Gonzales said.

The outlaw lifted his eyebrows. "Why waste time, since I am to be shot in any case?"

"Or hanged," Gonzales added harshly.

"The captured man did not bat an eye. 'I shall be just as dead whether you hang me or shoot me.'"

The trial took place in the same room in which Jack and Lee had been condemned. It was summary. Gonzales disregarded the criminal record of the man and tried him solely on the charge of having instigated rebellion against the government. Several of his men had been captured and there were no lack of witnesses. The verdict was reached on the first poll of votes.

In pronouncing the death sentence Gonzales dwelt on the nefarious career of the prisoner. "You deserve to be hanged and not shot," he said. "But Miss Reynolds and Mr. Hadley, who you condemned to face a firing squad, have pleaded with me for you to save you from this ignominy. As soon as possible you will be shot against the same wall where Mr. Hadley was to have stood."

Megares turned to Hadley. "No hard feelings. I played for high stakes and I have lost. No apologies. No regrets. I leave you the lady to console for my untimely end. Will you come to the little

"Adios!" Megares called in a clear, steady voice.

The smile had gone, but there was no fear in the face. The bandit leaned forward shoulders squared.

"The sword swept down and the rifles cracked. Megares reeled and fell."

Jack went back into the house to report to Lee.

"I heard the shots," she said, her face almost colorless. "It's over, isn't it?"

"Yes. He may have been a villain, but he was the bravest man I have ever seen." His voice was low and shaken.

She shuddered. "It came so near being you. I can't forget that. Thank God. Thank God."

He took her in his arms and smiled. It was rather a wan smile, for the reflection of what he had just seen was still in his face.

"Yes," he assented. "He has gone, but I am here to love and be loved. We are both safe from his vengeance, and yet... I'll never see a man walk more gallantly to death."

"I know one who would have gone as bravely," she thought, but did not say.

Captain Gonzales came into the room. "My uncle heard just before I left camp that the rebels in the north have been disastrously defeated. The insurrection is crushed. All is well," he said.

Lee disengaged herself from the arms of her lover, but she looked into his eyes and repeated the concluding words of the officer.

"All is well, Jack."

He understood that the message was a personal one to him. All was well with them. There was an open road ahead for the golden gate of happiness.

Yes, all was well.

Railroad Denied Raise In Rates

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Flatly denied permission to raise freight rates 15 per cent, America's railroads have before them a new and untried interstate commerce commission proposal for pooling monies derived from surcharges on freight bills to aid the less prosperous lines.

The railroads were left with no apparent alternative but to accept the plan. They were told their 15 per cent proposal would be harmful to themselves. The executives were directed to submit a plan for handling the pool by Dec. 1 and were informed it could not operate longer than March 31, 1933.

The spectacular effort of the carriers, as a whole, was brought to a startling conclusion with announcement late yesterday of the commission proposal. Railroad men had scoffed at the plan when shippers suggested it at hearings as unworkable.

What he thought or believed is the business of nobody but himself.

He was a good American, a good worker, one who respected other men.

Bigots, fanatics, and their tribe should respect his memory and take it for granted that whatever he thought was probably more accurate than anything that they could possibly think.

One thing is certain, if there is a heaven, as there undoubtedly is, Edson is there, sitting in the front row.

And if there is any possibility of improvement, in that celestial residence, he will furnish the improvement.

Mr. Cyrus H. K. Curtis cables from Vienna that central Europe is filled "with reports of French financial pressure on America."

How a country that owes you four or five billions can exert "financial pressure" isn't made very clear.

But it is said positively that Premier Laval now on his way here, will indicate that if the United States doesn't guarantee specifically the security of France against any possible real or imaginary attack, then France will not be kind to us economically.

Monsieur Laval and other Frenchmen know more about foreign countries than any one in France knew previous to the enlightening war of 1870. And Monsieur Laval surely knows that this country would not relish threats even diplomatically veiled. But if he doesn't know it now, he will know it five minutes after he meets President Hoover.

The city of Chicago has not paid a dollar in cash to any of its public school teachers since last April, and owes them in unpaid salaries more than seventeen million dollars.

That is a disgrace to Chicago. It ought to be possible to pay those on whom the quality and value of future generations depend.

Poverty cannot be offered as an excuse, in a city that since last April has paid to bootleggers, racketeers and gangsters, ten times the amount it owes to the public school teachers.

Doolittle Rests After New Record
(By Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 21.—Major James H. Doolittle noted American flier, was taking a day off today after having hung up a new mark for air speedsters, by flying from Ottawa, Canada to Mexico City, by way of Washington, D. C., in 12 hours and 36 minutes, linking three capitals.

He calculated his average speed for the flight at 204 miles an hour, and said he was making 235 miles an hour some of the time. The last 225 miles of the flight, from Tampico, were covered in 54 minutes.

He was made a bit "groggy," he said, by a leaking exhaust pipe which admitted some carbon monoxide into the cabin of the plane, and this, coupled with the fact that he had not been able to sleep the night before, and had eaten nothing all day, made it a "hard trip."

He plans to return to St. Louis tomorrow after a rest.

Northwestern Backfield Star Injured In Scrimmage Workout

SALEM HI GRIDDERS OPPOSE KENMORE ELEVEN HERE SATURDAY

THE DAY IN SPORTS

NOTRE DAME CARRIES ON OPPOSES PITT SATURDAY
DRAKE COACH LAUDS TEAM

LAST SUMMER the greatest individual personality known to football was carried to his grave, a victim of an airplane crash. He had just reached the climax in a meteoric career as football coach, had produced some of America's greatest gridiron aggregations and had prepared for a repetition of his success during the 1931 season.

At the start of the 1931 campaign the nation-wide query among football teams was: "What effect will Knute K. Rockne's death have on the coming Notre Dame team?" The reply has been given with astonishing emphasis by another gridiron machine from South Bend.

Heartily "Hunk" Anderson, almost as popular as the Notre Dame campus as his predecessor, succeeded Rockne as head football coach and already has come through Northwestern's great and powerful team was held to a scoreless tie, Indiana was outclassed and last Saturday a presumably strong Drake eleven was overwhelmed, 63-0.

It was the largest score ever amassed by a Notre Dame team and on the coming Saturday the sons of Rockne are scheduled to defeat a powerful University of Pittsburgh eleven.

OSSIE SOLEM, coach of the defeated Drake team, confessed after last Saturday's game that he had never seen "quite the equal of that Notre Dame team—I mean teams. They had everything and I'm not trying to alibi when I say that I think it's the greatest football combination I've ever witnessed in action."

"We've been playing Notre Dame for six straight seasons now but I never before have watched its team display a greater versatility. No, not even in the days of Knute Rockne's great teams."

Notre Dame players are still Rockne's boys. This season they promise to make, in the aggregate, the best football squad in the nation, like the two mighty teams that preceded them. The answer to the question of how important the Rockne influence was in a school devoted to the glorification of football cannot be given in 1931. Perhaps it cannot be given until every player who knew the great coach personally has left the squad that so delighted in pleasing him that has passed on.

For, Rockne is still with the team. Every player is carrying on for Knute.

Ken Meenan Not Expected to Play Against Ohio In Crucial Battle

WILLAMAN BUSY ON IMPROVING DEFENSE

Michigan Prepares For Illinois Game; Iowa Meets Minnesota

COLUMBUS, Oct. 21.—Defeating the co-champions of the Western Conference on successive Saturdays is no mean job, but that's the task confronting Ohio State as they prepare for the game with Northwestern here Saturday afternoon, which, according to reports, will draw the largest crowd of the season to date.

But with the odds against them there is an air of confidence as coaches and players go about their work. They know Northwestern will be better than Michigan, but the Buckeyes believe they could have defeated a much stronger team last Saturday.

Most of this week will be spent on defensive work, although several new plays have been given out with which Willaman hopes to combat the Wildcat's driving power.

By PAUL NICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Ken Meenan, Northwestern's star player, was badly injured in a scrimmage last night and it was extremely doubtful whether he would be able to start in the all-important game against the Buckeyes at Columbus Saturday.

The extent of his injuries may not be known for two days but Coach Hanley was worried, rightly so as Meenan's loss would rob him of one of the best ground gainers of 1931 football.

Reintner, Olson Back
Meenan's injury spoiled one of the best drills of the season in the Wildcat camp last night. "Pug" Reintner, his star passer, and Ollie Olson, his best punter, returned after a few days on the injury list and their presence inspired the Wildcats.

Forgetting the cheers that followed their upset of Michigan, Ohio State was busy throwing up a defense for the Wildcats.

Smarting under criticism for their showing against Ohio State, Michigan's Wolverines were in a dangerous mood for the Illinois game as they hustled through a spirited scrimmage against the freshmen. Meanwhile, Coach Bob Zuppke had his Illini in a cheer leading frame of mind.

Purdue Meets Tech
Because of injuries suffered in the Wisconsin game, Coach Noble Kizer was busy making shifts in his Purdue lineup for the Carnegie Tech game.

Wisconsin, too, had bruises to mend so Coach Glen Thistlethwaite drilled his reserves for the Pennsylvania invasion. At the Badger regulars were expected to start in the Penn game, however.

Minnesota eased up on its training for fear of injuries while Iowa drilled on blocking, which Coach Burt Ingwersen said was the principal reason why the Hawks failed to score against Indiana last week.

There was considerable activity in the Chicago and Indiana camps solely for the reason that two coaches want that game Saturday.

Frankie Frisch Honored Cardinal second baseman chosen as National league's most valuable player in official poll

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The National league's "most valuable player" for 1931 is Frankie Frisch, captain and second baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, champions of the world.

Frisch received 65 points out of a maximum of 80 in the vote of a committee of baseball writers to win the award by ten points from Chuck Klein, Phillies' outfielder, with Bill Terry, first baseman of the New York Giants third with 53. Officially the practice of naming annually the "most valuable player" was dropped in 1929. In 1930, Hack Wilson of the Chicago Cubs was selected by an unofficial poll conducted by the Associated Press and the Cubs recognized the award by handing Wilson the customary $1,000. This year the poll was conducted, unofficially again by the Baseball Writers' Association.

In the eight years that a most valuable player has been selected in the Heydler loop, St. Louis players have been adjudged the winners four times. Rogers Hornsby started the St. Louis parade in 1925 followed by Bob O'Farrell in 1925, Jim Bottomley in 1926 and Frisch this year. Dizzy Vance won the first award, in 1924, Paul Waner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, in 1927, Hornsby as a member of the Cubs, in 1929 and Wilson last year.

Frisch has been a contender for the honor thrice previously. He finished third to Vance in 1924 as a member of the New York Giants; second to Waner in 1927, and second to Wilson last season.

Son of Famous Willie Heston Quits Football for Studying

(By Associated Press)
ANN ARBOR, MICH., Oct. 20.—Willie Heston, Jr., who wishes sometimes his name were Smith, is said by his friends to have given up football.

Willie Heston has been a name to conjure with at Michigan since a stalwart of that name plunged his way into the headlines and onto Walter Camp's all-America football team a quarter of a century ago.

A lot of fans joined Willie, Sr. in hoping that Willie Jr. (they call him Bill) would carve the name anew on the football annals of this generation. Bill came to Michigan in 1929 after a much publicized prep-school gridiron career. Last year he played with the varsity, this year he was assigned to the "B" squad. When he didn't appear for practice this week, someone asked him why.

He said he needed the time for his studies. He expects to graduate in June.

His friends believe the responsibilities his name carried have ruined whatever changes he had to become a football star because coaches and fans expected too much of him.

Jack Heston, a sophomore brother, still is a varsity half-back—a hard plugging, fast-stepping runner and capable punter who may yet retrieve the Heston football fortunes.

STRONG AKRON TEAM TO PLAY QUAKER SQUAD

Rubber City Ruling Halts Plans for Night Game At Stadium Friday

CONTEST WILL AID SCHOOL FUND

Visitors Win One Out of Four Decisions; Hold Alliance High, 12-0

Attempting to play as many home games as possible in order to aid a rapidly decreasing athletic association fund, Salem High school officials today announced schedules of Akron Kenmore High's strong grid eleven for a contest with the Quaker City varsity at Reilly athletic stadium Saturday.

Starts Home Schedule
Arrangements for the contest were completed by Principal Wilbur J. Springer and Faculty Manager Harold M. Williams today. It will be the fifth game of the Red and Black's 1931 schedule and the first of a series of four consecutive contests scheduled on the team's home field.

Purchase of new equipment for the largest squad of griders to ever turn out for Salem High football decreased funds in the Salem High School Athletic association to a low point this year, officials explained.

Salem High will be seeking its fourth consecutive victory in its clash with the Kenmore eleven. Kenmore has won one game, tied one and lost two in four starts this season.

Holds Alliance, 12

The worst setback sustained by a Kenmore eleven in years was inflicted last week by Barberton who won a 33-3 verdict over the Akronites. The latter entered the battle handicapped by injuries and were unable to compete with the powerful Barberton combine, one of the leaders in the Northeastern Ohio Big Ten Athletic association.

Alliance High's powerful eleven was forced to the limit to annex a 12-0 decision over Kenmore. The team defeated Cuyahoga Falls, 6-0, and held Wadsworth's undefeated aggregation to a scoreless tie. Both latter results were distinct upsets.

The team will invade Salem with its strongest combination, Coach C. T. Monroe said this morning, and expects to trim the Quakers.

An Akron board of education ruling stipulating that no Rubber City schools are permitted to play night football blocked Salem's plans for a nocturnal engagement between the two schools here Friday.

Salem High's state championship cross country team, victorious in four straight meets, will race runners from Wooster High in a return match between halves of the grid game, Coach R. B. Clarke announced today.

Mount Union Star Leads Ohio College Gridders in Scoring

(By Associated Press)

Rolling up 130 points in four games Wittenberg's veteran football bounced into the scoring lead of Ohio this week, but only by the narrow margin of three points. Miami running a close second with 127.

More than half of Wittenberg's points were made last Friday night in its 99 to 0 victory over East Kentucky. Teachers, although Coach Stobbs' team has played one scoreless tie. Likewise Miami failed to score in its initial game at Pittsburgh.

Grimes Tops Scoring

Strange to say however the leading individual scorer of the state is not a member of either team, but is Leroy Grimes of Mount Union. Grimes has crossed his opponents goal line six times this year for a total of 38 points.

Next to the Mount Union flash and tied for second place with 30 points each are Westfall, Ohio Wesleyan; Gabriel, Ohio university and Schurz University of Dayton.

Reudebush, of Miami comes next with 26 while three other players, Samuelson of Case, Lanning of Wittenberg and Terry of Wilberforce, have 24 each. Beckwith of Xavier trails the leaders with 21.

This week will see the Buckeye Athletic association races narrowed down when Miami meets Wesleyan at Delaware, Ohio playing at Cincinnati and Denison taking on Wabash at Crawfordsville, Ind. only one game is booked in the Northwest Ohio League, Bluffton playing at Bowling Green. Findlay will play City College of Detroit at that place and Defiance, the other member is idle.

Many Ohio teams go outside of the state for their opposition this week. Rio Grande plays at Bluefield, W. Va., Marietta goes to Marshall at Huntington, W. Va., while Baldwin-Wallace and Kenyon invade New York State, the former playing Rochester and the latter Hobart at Geneva.

Case Opposes Akron

In the Ohio conference Case meets Akron at that place Otterbein plays at Ohio Northern and Oberlin will tangle at Wooster. In non-conference games Hiram plays Western Reserve and Urbana takes on Cedarville.

Several interesting games are on tap Friday night, Heidelberg playing at Muskingum Mount Union at Ashland, Butler at Dayton, Xavier at Wittenberg and Wilmington at John Carroll.

THEATER Attractions

"FIVE STAR FINAL" starring Edward G. Robinson is the attraction today at the State theater.

"Five Star Final" written by Louis Weitzenkorn, himself an ex-newspaperman, portrays the havoc wrought in a respectable family when the scandal sheet reveals a long-buried skeleton—causing the suicide of the parents of a young girl who is about to marry, and ruining her future happiness.

Edward G. Robinson presents the most dynamic and movingly human role of his career as Randall, managing editor of the paper—who finally rebels against the unhumanity of his hypocritical big boss and resigns.

The superb support includes Marjorie Marsh, H. B. Warner, Anthony Bushell, George E. Stone, Frances Starr, Ona Munson, Boris Karloff, and Robert Elliott.

MARKING the screen debut of two actresses from the New York stage, and another strong role in the hands of one of the most popular leading men in motion pictures, "Bad Sister," a sparkling comedy drama, opened an engagement at the Grand theater yesterday.

Sidney Fox and Bette Davis are the two girls in question, and both give promise of successful screen careers. Miss Fox plays the leading feminine role of Marianne, a spoiled, selfish daughter of small-town parents, and Miss Davis is seen as her far more worthy sister. The man in the case is Conrad Nagel, who can always be depended upon for a pleasing, capable performance.

Laval Is Firm On Debt Arrangements

(By Associated Press)
S. S. ILE DE FRANCE, Oct. 21.—Premier Pierre Laval of France, who will arrive tomorrow for conference with President Hoover at Washington, believes that, as a favor to France, no proposal for a 50 per cent reduction of war debts should be considered, it was understood today.

The majority of the premier's supporters in the French parliament, it was said, are emphatic on that point.

The premier has certain convictions about the welfare of his country and is preparing to meet the American viewpoint only so far as it does not conflict with these.

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets help arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, people rarely suffer from indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Try Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. All druggists, 15c, 30c and 60c. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like.

Our Own Salem Boys — Ray Allen and Jim Ready

Now On WJAY, Cleveland, known as

Whitie and Willie
Will Soon Be Here In Person

From taxi-cab drivers to artists on the air! It all seems just like a dream, but it is a fact.

Ray Allen and Jim Ready, are well-known all over this district. It's not so long ago when these two boys were driving taxis, and at that time it did not seem as if there would not be any change in their vocation, and little did the natives of this city foresee that these two boys would, in a short time come back to Salem as well known artists on the air. It was not an easy matter for them to reach the pinnacle of their ambitions. It was hard sledding, and months of hard practicing, ere they were allowed to broadcast.

Mr. L. P. Wilson, president of The Wilson Products Company, of Cleveland, manufacturers of Wo-Wo Tablets, was not so keen at the time of his first few meetings with the boys, and what they had to offer, but their constant bull-dog tenacity, and their continuous practicing and try-outs finally won for them try-outs in different studios, and finally they were allowed to go on—yet it was with doubt. The answer is that their station and others are just wild about "Whitie and Willie."

If loyalty is to be rewarded, as Mr. Wilson remarks, Ray Allen and Jim Ready should be decorated by the Salemites, for if advertisements counts for anything, these two boys surely, talk of Salem "all the time." In fact, so much that as Mr. Wilson again remarks: "I sometimes feel that I am in Salem." Well, they're your boys, and Salemites should feel proud of them. It will not be long now ere you will hear them on a national hookup. Listen in every Tuesday and Friday morning at nine over WJAY, Cleveland. Again we say, they soon will be in your city in person.
